

Tidal Fishes of Maryland

American Shad

Hickory Shad

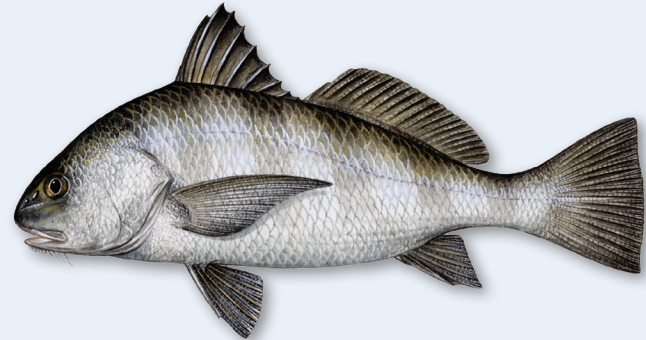

River Herring

American Eel

Atlantic Croaker

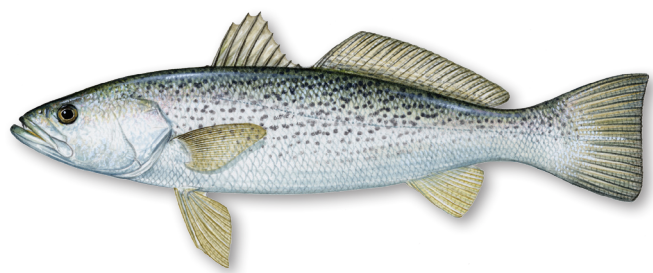

Black Drum

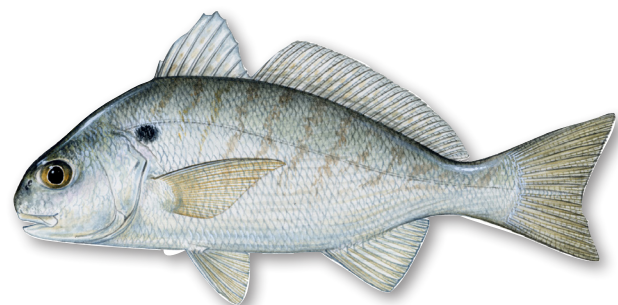

Spotted Seatrout

Red Drum

Weakfish

Spot

Striped Bass

White Perch

Smallmouth Bass

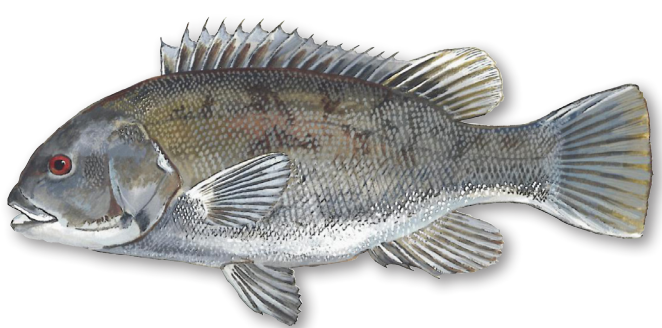

Largemouth Bass

Yellow Perch

Walleye

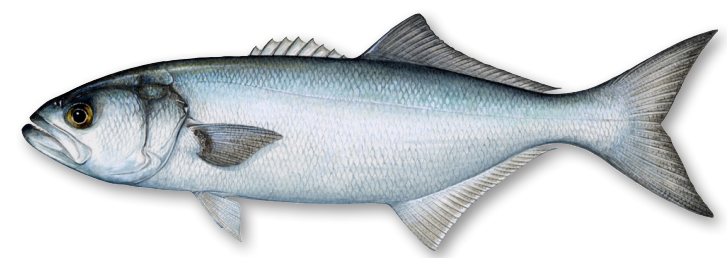

Tautog

Black Sea Bass

Spanish Mackerel

Bluefish

Channel Catfish

Chain Pickerel

Common Carp

Summer Flounder

Invasive - The department asks anglers to remove and kill any invasive fish they catch.

Blue Catfish

Flathead Catfish

Northern Snakehead

Fish illustrations by Duane Raver and Diane Rome Peebles
Snakehead illustration by Susan Trammell

This is a summary of fish species that anglers commonly catch in Maryland tidal waters. It does not include all regulated species.

Complete information and updates for all regulated species are available at eregulations.com/maryland/fishing/